Darren Simons Joins SourceRight Solutions as Vice President and General Manager of Recruitment Process Outsourcing

Senior talent investment demonstrates SourceRight's commitment to global RPO delivery

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. – July 29, 2010 –SourceRight Solutions, a division of SFN Group, Inc. (NYSE: SFN), today announced it has appointed Darren Simons to serve as vice president and general manager of Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO). This senior leadership appointment demonstrates SourceRight Solutions' commitment to delivering innovative RPO services worldwide as companies look to streamline processes, optimize talent acquisition, and reduce hiring costs.

In this leadership role, Simons has direct responsibility for all RPO delivery and client relationships across a diverse portfolio of mid-market and Fortune 500 clients in key industry sectors, including technology, engineering and manufacturing, insurance, healthcare and pharmaceuticals, consulting, banking and finance, and retail. He brings 18 years of global management and leadership experience in the human capital services and talent acquisition space.

Rebecca Callahan, president of SourceRight Solutions said, "Last year, through the integration of our RPO, MSP and Contingent Workforce Management offerings, we added significant depth to the talent acquisition and management solutions we can provide our clients. As a result, we have received great interest in our Strategic Talent Optimization approach from organizations interested in improving their ability to manage blended workforces that include employees, free agent talent, and contingent workers. I am confident that Darren's talent acquisition outsourcing background and senior level experience in managing large-scale engagements will allow him to bring the latest innovations in this area to the SourceRight RPO client base, globally.

With nearly two decades of strategic leadership and global staffing operations experience, Simons joined SourceRight Solutions in June 2010. Most recently, he led staffing operations for a global BPO provider where he implemented cutting-edge recruitment technology to enable hiring approximately 20,000 people per year. Additionally, he has previously held executive and senior leadership positions at a major staffing and workforce solutions firm. Most notably, Simons led a $450 million business segment that operated in approximately 30 countries. His responsibilities included delivering recruitment outsourcing, staffing services, vendor management programs, business process outsourcing and organizational consulting services to large global organizations. Simons also was responsible for sector research and strategic planning for technology in the recruitment space. In addition to leading recruitment, other positions held include VP of North America sales, director of operations and director of strategic services.
