SOURCERIGHT SOLUTIONS RECEIVES TOP RANKING IN HRO TODAY'S BAKER'S DOZEN LISTING OF MANAGED SERVICE PROVIDERS

Ranked second for breadth of service, deal size and quality of service based on customer satisfaction data

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. – April 14, 2010 – SourceRight Solutions, a division of SFN Group, Inc. (NYSE: SFN), today announced that it has been named one of the top Managed Service Program (MSP) providers in HRO Today's "Baker's Dozen" ranking.

The HRO Today "Baker's Dozen" listing ranks the top providers of MSP services - both in the U.S. and internationally - and is based on data collected and analyzed from customer satisfaction surveys. Survey questions focused on services provided, scope and scale of services, and quality and satisfaction with the services. In addition to being ranked second in the overall MSP category, SourceRight Solutions was recognized for its:

- MSP program cost savings
- Ability to deliver complete visibility on all temporary talent spend
- Tracking performance goals on MWBE spend; talent quality levels and time-to-fill ratios
- Rate card and other government/corporate compliance standards
- Vendor quality performance requirements
- Ongoing client, hiring manager, and temporary talent satisfaction levels

"We are honored to be recognized by HRO Today as a leader in delivering the highest quality managed service programs for our clients," said Rebecca Callahan, President of SourceRight Solutions. "As more companies turn to alternative hiring models, they are in need of streamlined processes around the procurement of their temporary workforce. We have the deep-rooted expertise that is necessary to help organizations find the best talent, at a reduced cost, during a time when the hiring landscape is undergoing significant changes."

Elliot Clark, CEO of HRO Today Magazine, added: "SourceRight Solutions has been recognized as a leading managed service provider because of its comprehensive spectrum of work-force related processes and exceptional delivery of quality services. SourceRight's commitment to providing the insight necessary to drive strategic talent decisions is what sets the company apart as an industry leader in providing recruitment and staffing innovations."

The rankings contained within HRO Today's Baker's Dozen for Managed Service Programs and other service areas in HRO Today are based on customer survey data. Survey responses are incorporated into the HRO Today database and analyzed to score each provider having a statistically significant sample. For the MSP survey, HRO Today received feedback from more than 60 verified customers. The rankings are based on point assignments and weightings of questions and a predetermined algorithm that calculates the overall score based on breadth, scope and scale, and quality. Rankings and weightings are determined statistically.

Hays plc, which recently announced a strategic partnership with SourceRight Solutions to offer talent acquisition solutions on a global scale, also made the HRO Today's 2010 ranking and is the only U.K.-based global specialized recruiting group to appear on this year's list.

SourceRight Solutions delivers a wide range of MSP solutions and services to help clients maximize and control their variable talent investments. These services include employment process management, talent procurement operations and vendor management programs. The company's MSP programs give companies complete insight into temporary talent spend, hiring quality and vendor performance.
